INSURE IN THE Equitable Life Assurance

Society of the United States.

An Eminent Conservative and Safe Company.

FINANCIAL STRENGTH.

The consideration of first importance in judging of the condition of any financial institution (and notably of a life assurance company, the majority of whose contracts extend over long periods of years) is its surplus strength. The Equitable has, over and above all liabilities, a larger surplus than any other assurance company.

Assets, Dec. 31, 1891,	$136,198,518.38
LIABILITIES, including the Reserve on all existing Policies, (4 per cent. Standard) and Special Reserve (toward the establishment of a 3 1/2 per cent. valuation) of $1,500,000	109,905,537.82
Surplus,	$26,292,980.56

This Surplus remains after making provision for every obligation, on a rigid calculation of Liabilities based on the standard prescribed by the Insurance Law of the State of New York, which assumes that Assets will be invested so as to realize interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. In addition to this, in a spirit of conservatism, the Directors of the Society, on the recommendation of its Finance Committee, have set aside a Special Additional Reserve, looking towards even a more stringent and conservative future standard of valuation than the law now prescribes.

King's affairs a letter was written to Mr. Thurston, Minister, asking if the Government had any claim on the Electric Light plant. I have his answer stating that it did belong to the King. About the private property at the Palace I have been repeatedly to the Ministers and got no satisfaction. This so far is a dead loss of $10,000 to $12,000 to Queen Kapiolani.

G. T. Noble Cornwell—In submitting this statement I would say, when it was first proposed to provide for a permanent settlement on the Dowager Queen, it was repulsed with virtuous indignation by certain members of this House, who denounced this measure of relief for Her Majesty as a raid on the Treasury. Now, we find by the statement of her agent that the Queen's affairs are in such an unsatisfactory state as to make her need assistance. From this statement it appears that her private income from the Punchbowl lands has been reduced to less than $2500 and that this sum may be further reduced by the departure of all of the Portuguese tenants. Her financial position stands thus: Debt against her husband's estate, against which all of her lands are mortgaged, $40,000; her income is $2500; the interest at 9 percent on the $40,000 with taxes are $4000, leaving a loss of $1500 over and above her income. I saw her agent this morning, and he says that the highest valuation that could be placed on the mortgaged property would not be more than $50,000. I would now ask that the amount of $8000 be inserted in the Appropriation Bill as recommended by the committee.

Noble Marsden was in favor of giving something to the Dowager Queen, but the members should remember that the country was poor itself; he would amend to $6000.

Rep. Smith favored the amendment. He considered that Dr. Trousseau had omitted some of the items of income from his statement. He thought it was proper to give the Queen Dowager something. It may be that Dr. Trousseau had meant to refer simply to the property which was her own without reference to his late Majesty's estate; but that was now hers. He considered the statement a misleading one all the same.

On motion the item at $8000 was put, resulting in a tie vote. The chairman, Rep. Kamaoia, cast his vote in favor of the amount, and the item was inserted at that figure.

Items, under the head of Attorney General's Department, were now passed as follows:

Salary Clerk Sheriff of Hawaii, $1800, passed at $1200.

Salary Clerk Sheriff of Maui, $1800, passed at $1200.

Salary Clerk Sheriff of Kauai, $600, passed.

Pay of Police, Hawaii, $60,000.

This item the Committee on Ways and Means had recommended to pass at the sum of $51,720.

Rep. Waipulani favored deferring consideration of this and the items following, relative to Pay of Police, until a bill regulating the police was presented.

Rep. Nawahi was of like opinion and also favored the amounts being individually itemized. As it was now, a new man, if he was a white man, would be favored with a larger salary than a native, who may have had long and excellent service to his credit.

Rep. Koshou said that the salaries should be apportioned. Men were getting high salaries on the police force without any right. He knew a man named J. H. Mahy, he had been retired from the Volcano House and he was on the police force now at Hilo. This man Mahy, although no more than a high private in the ranks, was receiving $100 per month as salary, while a native of more ability and higher in position was only getting $60. Again, he noticed that a Portuguese who was not even a private in the ranks, but was keeping a hotel at Hilo, was being paid $40 per month from the police appropriation. If the Assembly had the apportionment of salaries he did not think such things would be.

Rep. Waipulani said that there was unjust discrimination shown between whites and natives in the matter of salaries. There were two deputy marshals at $200 each. Neither could earn that sum outside of a Government position, and then there was a captain of police at $150, a man that could hardly write his own name. Good natives, however, did not receive such salaries; those spoken of were white men. He had formerly opposed this apportionment of the various salaries but he was now in favor of it. He had noticed a man named J. C. Long who was supposed to be getting $150 as a detective; he had noticed him lately doing considerable hack-driving. He was a favorite undoubtedly and could work or play as he pleased.

Noble Baldwin said that the Committee on Ways and Means sometimes mentioned as the "mean ways committee," were in favor of separating the items of the amount as applied to the salaries of the principal officers. He was in favor of apportioning the pay.

Minister Parker was also in favor of dividing up the amounts and also in deferring further consideration of the item for the present.

Rep. Kaunamano believed in apportionment. He knew of police who had acted as dry nurses in the family of a Deputy Sheriff, they took care of the children and drew pay for their services from the Police fund. Consider that the Committee on Ways and Means had done good work but the Assembly could better apportion pay than they.

Rep. Bush said that the members should study how to properly apportion the amount. As it was now the discretionary power was used unfairly. The police of Honolulu were not paid for work or for service. The work done was but little. He had been informed that there was a "chee fa" bank on Maunakea street where the proprietors had to pay over $50 every morning before commencing play. There were four banks and therefore the police collected $200 per day for perquisites. The Police Department was rotten from the head down. If the Queen appointed an officer and he had prostituted his official power for the sake of gain then it was time that official was removed and the members of the Cabinet should see to it. Men were getting fancy salaries all the way from $150 to $100 per month. There was J. Stelling from Maui; he was a detective or something of the sort at $150 per month. Where did he get the money from? The speaker understood that there would be another revolution in the near future and he hoped it would be strong enough to shake all these people out of their places.

At 4:10 on motion of Noble Marsden the Committee rose and resolved into Assembly. Chairman Kamaoia reported the progress made and the report was approved.

At 4:15 the Assembly adjourned.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. Fifty cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents.
